Civic Music Announces Six Concerts for Upcoming Season

Corning, NY – The Corning–Painted Post Civic Music Association is pleased to announce the six concerts in its 2023-24 season. This year’s lineup will feature world-class ensembles performing jazz, classical, rock, pop, and vocal music, all taking place at the Corning Museum of Glass Auditorium.

“We’re excited about our 95th season: Our audiences are coming back!” said Hank Jonas, board president of the Civic Music Association. “They’ve missed high-caliber, affordable live performances presented in a superb venue. This season will feature something for every taste: jazzy versions of Disney* show tunes, a rock-pop-classical fusion, holiday a capella, an homage to Janis Joplin, the successor to an iconic folk music group, and more. You won’t want to miss it!”

New season subscribers can purchase tickets starting June 26. All ticket sales open August 1. The entire season lineup appears below (and at corningcivictimusic.org):

Jazz Tribute: 100 Years of Disney – Saturday, October 28, 2023

The house band of the National Jazz Museum in Harlem performs When You Wish Upon a Star, a jazz tribute to 100 years of popular songs from Disney films.

Note: This production is not affiliated with, sponsored, or authorized by The Walt Disney Company.*

TAKE3 – Sunday, November 12, 2023 (3:00 pm Matinee)

“Where Rock Meets Bach”: TAKE3 combines classical music with pop and rock arrangements, captivating crowds with their rock-star charisma.

Accent – Saturday, December 9, 2023

The highly accomplished a cappella group Accent has released five albums and played internationally, including two recent sold-out shows at London’s Royal Albert Hall.

Trio Con Brio Copenhagen – Friday, February 23, 2024

With a reputation as one of the world's finest piano ensembles, Trio Con Brio has garnered numerous awards, including "Chamber Choice" of the month from the BBC Music Magazine.

Amy Lynn & The Honey Men Celebrate Janis Joplin – Saturday, March 23, 2024

The versatile and much-admired group Amy Lynn & The Honey Men will perform their interpretations of Janis Joplin favorites.

Kingston Trio – Saturday, May 4, 2024

When the Kingston Trio emerged in 1957, they single-handedly brought American folk music into the mainstream. The group has remained popular decades later for a simple reason: "great songs that sound as good today as the first time you heard them."

The Corning–Painted Post Civic Music Association is dedicated to presenting premier musical talent of today and rising stars of tomorrow in a world-class live performance venue. Still flourishing after 95 years, Civic Music is our community's oldest continuing performing arts organization.
